

Only the first row is primary. The final two analyses were specified after the primary result was known.
All other rows are secondary or sensitivity analyses; negative values indicate less documented recovery with LZD.